

GetJet Airlines baggage policy

Valid from 15th of February 2019

1. General information

During the flights baggage may be transported in the cabin and in cargo hold. The items you may require during the flight should be placed in your carry-on baggage, which you may take in the cabin with you. Larger baggage and other kinds of larger items are transported as a checked-in baggage in the cargo hold. Special items, such as various sports equipment, musical instruments, pets, children's car seats, folding buggies, prams or baby seats etc., fall under separate rules and fees.

1.1. Baggage allowance

Type of baggage	Maximum weight and dimensions	Number of items	Comments
Checked-in baggage	20 kg* Maximum dimensions 158 cm (height + length + width)	1 item	Maximum weight of a single baggage item cannot exceed 32 kg. Tolerance – 0 kg.
Additional checked-in baggage for passengers with infants (for a child younger than 2 years who will be travelling on your lap)	10 kg Maximum dimensions 158 cm (height + length + width)	1 item	1 folding buggy or 1 car seat (properly packed for transportation) is allowed to carry free of charge.
Carry-on baggage	5 kg Maximum dimensions 55 x 40 x 20 cm	1 item	Aside from free carry-on baggage, passengers may also have a small backpack/handbag/lap-top bag, not exceeding 30 x 40 x 10 cm dimensions or a throw, blanket, on-board reading materials, baby food, umbrella, cane, crutches, folding wheelchair for passengers with disabilities and one bag of duty-free items.

* Exceptions:

- 15 kg for flights to Tenerife (TFS), Dubai (DWC), Fuerteventura (FUE), Madeira (FNC).
- 18 kg for flights to Bergamo (BGY), Salzburg (SZG), Lyon (LYS), Klagenfurt (KLU), Verona (VRN). This total baggage weight includes ski/snowboarding shoes, which may be packed and checked-in separately. Ski/snowboarding shoes might also be carried instead of passenger carry-on baggage. Quantity of ski/snowboarding sets is limited, therefore the approval from the tour operator must be obtained in advance.

1.2. Carry-on baggage

- Each passenger (excluding infants) may take one hand baggage item that doesn't exceed 5 kg with him to the cabin. Carry-on baggage dimensions cannot exceed 55 x 40 x 20 cm. Aside from free carry-on baggage, passengers may also have a small backpack/handbag/laptop bag, not exceeding 30 x 40 x 10 cm dimensions or a throw, blanket, on-board reading materials, baby food, umbrella, cane, crutches, folding wheelchair for passengers with disabilities and one bag of duty-free items.
- If your cabin baggage is overweight, oversized or exceeds the allowed quantity, you'll need to check it in at the airport counter. Airport checked baggage fees apply. In cases where you are at the boarding gate and you do not meet our cabin baggage policy, we will need to check in your cabin baggage. This will incur a baggage fee.

1.3. Check-in baggage

- Check-in baggage should not contain fragile or perishable items. We also don't recommend placing any valuable items, such as money, keys, medicines, medical documents, sunglasses, cameras, video cameras and other valuable electronic or technical equipment and its parts, computers, personal electronic devices, phones, mobile phones, batteries for electronic devices, jewelry, precious or semi-precious metals and stones, musical instruments, securities or bonds, valuable art, business documents, passports or other identification documents or specimens/samples, in your carry-on baggage.
- Passengers traveling with infants (0-2 years old) may bring one item of their choice free of charge: a pram/foldable buggy or a car safety seat. These items can only be transported as check-in baggage and it should be appropriately packed for transportation.
- Passengers traveling with children over 2 years old may bring a pram/foldable buggy or a car safety seat with them for an extra fee. Such items cannot be transported free of charge and it must be appropriately packed for transportation.

1.4. Fees for excess, special and bulky baggage

General information

- Passengers may check-in a set quantity of check-in baggage. Any baggage that exceeds the set quantity (in weight, size or item numbers) is regarded as excess baggage and is subject to fees.
- If your baggage weight or the number of baggage items exceeds the allowed amount, we reserve the right to refuse to transport such baggage or we may agree to transport it (or a part of it), if you pay the excess baggage fee.
- Possible solutions, when baggage does not correspond to free checked baggage allowance:
 - When two passengers, who are on the same flight and who know each other, arrive to check-in, baggage may be summed and its weight/number of items may be distributed between the two passengers.
 - Passenger may be directed to the ticket office, where he/she can pay the excess baggage fee.
 - If the passenger refuses to pay for excess baggage, the airline may refuse to transport the baggage. The passenger may leave his/her baggage at the airport's luggage storage or may leave the baggage with accompanying person.
- Information regarding fees for excess baggage can be obtained from the airline, tour operator or from your travel agent.

1.8 Regulation for already damaged and not properly packed baggage

Each passenger is responsible for the properly packed hand baggage, checked baggage and special equipment. If any of his or her baggage is not properly packed for transportation or is already damaged before the flight, the passenger will be asked to sign a "Limited Release form" by a check-in agent at the airport. By signing this document, a passenger must agree that he or she takes all the responsibility in case of any damages occurred to that baggage and he or she agrees for not making any claims to GetJet Airlines regarding that possible damage.

1.9 Items prohibited carrying on board

1.9.1 The following items are prohibited from being carried in hand baggage:

- Firearms and non-firearm weapons and ammunition: all items which are suitable or appear to be suitable for firing a projectile or items which can cause injury.
- Stun or shock devices: devices intended for stunning or causing immobility of an individual.
- Items with sharp ends or edges: items with sharp end or edges which may endanger the safety of the aircraft or individuals (injure individuals) or property on board the aircraft.
- Work tools: tools which may endanger the safety of the aircraft or individuals (injure individuals) or property on board the aircraft.
- Blunt items whose impact may endanger the safety of the aircraft or individuals (injure individuals) or property on board the aircraft.
- Liquids in containers exceeding 100 ml capacity. The concept of liquids includes: gels, pastes, lotions, mixes of liquid and solid substances, and the content of hermetically sealed containers, e.g. toothpaste, hair styling gel, beverages, soups, syrups, perfumes, shaving foam, aerosols, and other products of similar texture.
- Explosives and incendiary substances and incendiary devices which may endanger or seemingly endanger the aircraft or people or property on board the aircraft, as well as other items which may not be carried in checked baggage (IATA and ICAO article 8.4.2).

1.9.2 The following items are prohibited from being carried in checked baggage:

- Explosives and incendiary substances and incendiary devices which may endanger or seemingly endanger the security of the aircraft or individuals or property on board of the aircraft, including, but not limited to, firearms and ammunition, unless these satisfy the requirements of Articles 8.4.2 and 8.5.3, blasting caps, detonators and fuses, mines and other explosive military stores, fireworks and other pyrotechnics, smoke generating canisters and cartridges, dynamite, powder and plastic explosives.
- Items the Carriage of which is prohibited by the applicable laws and other regulations of the country of origin or destination.
- Items which, considering the type of the aircraft, are unsuitable for Carriage due to their weight, size, form or other characteristics that may endanger security and safety.
- Other items which are likely to endanger the security of the aircraft or persons or property on board of the aircraft and are specified in the International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO) Technical Instructions for Safe Transport of dangerous Goods by Air and the International Air Transport Association (IATA)

Dangerous Goods Regulations, Regulation No. 185/2010 of the Commission, and in our rules that you may familiarise yourself with asking the Client or in our website.

- Firearms and ammunitions can be carried only as Checked Baggage. Firearms must be unloaded (with the ammunitions not loaded in the firearms and separated from the case containing the firearm), with a safety mechanism, and suitably packed (in a special case). Carriage of firearms and ammunition is subject to ICAO and IATA regulations specified in Article 8.3.1.2(d) and applicable legislation. The firearms carried on board the aircraft must be declared to the services registering Passengers of civil aviation companies.
- Acceptance for carriage of weapons is subject to prior arrangement with tour operator prior to the purchase of the ticket. The agent prior to selling a ticket to such passenger must receive GetJet Airlines confirmation about such service. At your request, the tour operator will provide all the information about our requirements and the services we provide.
- Weapons such as antique firearms, swords, knives and similar items may be accepted as Checked Baggage, provided this does not violate safety and security requirements and are suitably packed. However, these items are prohibited from caring in the cabin of the aircraft.
- You must not include in your Checked Baggage fragile or perishable items or items having a special value, such as money, keys, medicines, medical documents, glasses, sunglasses, cameras, video cameras, and other valuable electronic or technical equipment and their auxiliary parts, computers, personal electronic devices, telephones, mobile telephones, batteries of electronic equipment, jewellery, precious metals, precious and semi-precious stones, music instruments, securities, or other valuables, valuable pieces of art, business documents, passports and other identification documents, or samples.
- Aviation security officers may refuse to admit a Passenger in the limited access area and/or aircraft cabin who is carrying a suspicious looking item or refuses to carry such an item as Checked Baggage.

1.10 Delayed, damaged or lost baggage
